WORLD NEWS IN REVIEW

Grasshopper Horde

Thousands of acres of cultivated farm lands in the San Joaquin valley were under threat of immediate devastation and ruin this week as a vast grasshopper army advanced along a 200-mile front, devouring everything in its path and multiplying with incredible swiftness. Bumper crops of irrigated barley, cotton, flax, and sugar beets lie at the mercy of the invaders.

Emergency measures being rushed by Federal, state and county agencies include poison mash, sheet metal barriers, and spraying by airplane. A 35-mile stretch of the Hanford-Coalinga highway was reported covered four inches deep in some sections by the moving horde, making highway travel in the infested area extremely hazardous.

Hitler To Reply

Asserting that "Mr. Roosevelt's speech was a mine sprung against us," Adolph Hitler this week feverishly attempted to conclude pacts with several small European nations before he speaks before the Reichstag, April 28, in reply to President Roosevelt's surprise peace appeal.

Support of the small nations would enable Hitler to propose concrete terms of his own for a durable peace. Said Hitler: "We shall spring a counter mine infinitely more powerful and impressive than anything the democracies ever thought out."

Economy Move

Thirty-two thousand persons will be thrown off relief in California and more than 600 state relief administration staff members will be dismissed within the next few days, under an economy move announced yesterday by H. Dewey Anderson, SRA administrator. Anderson added that even more rigid enforcement of relief eligibility requirements in the future will drive others from the relief rolls, forcing them "to look elsewhere for aid."

Lay Plans For Outdoor Girl Contest

Famed for its traditions, California has added another one—the selection of the finest outdoor high school girl in the state, held each year at the California Rodeo at Salinas. Rodeo daes have been announced for July 13-16 and information concerning the finest outdoor girl contest is now being sent to high school and chamber of commerce groups throughout the state. Directing the event is R. D. Case, superintendent of the Salinas School system

Miss Juanita Young, Jefferson Union high school girls' athletic instructor, announces that there will be a number of entries from the local high school to represent Daly City in the Salinas event.

Contest Winner

To the winner of the contest this year will go the choice of a trip to Glacier National Park for herself and a companion or a year's tuition with board and room paid at the Salinas junior college. Miss Jane Pendergast, San Francisco, winner last year, chose the Glacier National Park trip.

"Selection of the finest outdoor high school girl is based on four qualities," points out Mr. Case. "These are horsemanship, outdoor appearance, personality and intellectual ability, each one counting equally in the final scoring."

Under the plan this year, the chamber of commerce, in any California town may select an outdoor high school girl for entry in the finals at the California Rodeo at Salinas. Any high school girl in either public or private school is eligible. Last year there were representatives from 42 counties.

Day at Treasure Island

One high-light on the program for entertainment of the outdoor girls will be a day at Treasure Island on July 11, with broadcasts from the studios on Treasure Island, visits to county exhibits, the State and Federal buildings and the Fine Arts building. All of the girls will have an opportunity to take part in the historical pageant, "Cavalcade of the Golden West."

After the program at Treasure Island, the girls will come to Salinas for the final judging, to be followed by participation in the parade Wednesday night and Thursday noon. Each girl and her companion will be guests of the California Rodeo on Thursday, July 13, in Salinas.

Recognized as one of the greatest rodeos in the world, the twenty-seventh California Rodeo is expected to attract record crowds due to the anticipated visitors from the East, who will be out for the Fair. The daily horse parade with an average of 1,000 riders, as it circles the arena, with the majestic back-drop of the blue-gray Gabilan mountains, is a spectacle never forgotten.

"Our Town" Comes to S. F. Mon., April 24

"Our Town," the noted Pulitzer prize play, will be presented at the Curran theater, San Francisco for a limited engagement, opening Monday night, April 24, with a gala premiere.

The original Jed Harris production, starring Frank Craven, beloved stage and screen star, and a cast of fifty, exactly as performed at the Morosco theater in New York for a full year, is being presented on its Pacific Coast tour by Everett Weil and Ray Golden.

A little New Hampshire village is the locale of "Our Town." The hamlet, Grover's Corners, has all the familiar sights and sounds of small town life: factory whistles, children playing on their way home from school, the gossip of women at work, the silence of small town streets at night, the smell of heliotrope in the morning.

Fifty Characters

The play numbers among its fifty characters many of the well-known figures in the life of a typical country village: the editor, the doctor, the newspaper carrier, the milkman, the choir master, choir singers and the town gossips. This daily life through its very humbleness and commonness has a kind of universality and divinity.

Playwright Wilder is the only writer ever to win the Pulitzer prize in two different divisions of literature; his novel, "The Bridge of San Luis Rey," won the award in 1928 and ten years later "Our Town" was voted the outstanding American play.

Jed Harris, noted for his production of "Royal Family," "Broadway," "Coquette," and "The Front Page," read the first act of "Our Town" while in London and flew to Zurich, Switzerland, where Mr. Wilder was completing the play.

Tickets are on sale at the Curran Box office. Matinees will be given Wednesday and Saturday.

Elect McConville To Head Association

Principal Francis J. McConville of San Mateo high school will head the San Mateo County Tuberculosis association for the next year.

Active in tuberculosis work for several years, McConville was the choice of the nominating committee and unanimously elected to the presidency at a meeting of the association at the Benjamin Franklin hotel Monday night when the annual election of officers took place.

He succeeds Dr. F. C. Gregory of Redwood City, who presided. Two speakers were Dr. Chesley Bush of Alameda county, president of the National Tuberculosis association, and Charles L. Newcomb, director of the Christmas Seal sale of the National Tuberculosis association.

Dr. Harry Warren of Belmont was chosen vice president; Mrs. C. A. Andrews of San Mateo, secretary; and T. N. Thompson of Redwood City, treasurer.

Authorize County To Certify Institutions

San Mateo county Tuesday became one of seven counties, which include San Francisco and Los Angeles, authorized to certify boarding homes and institutions caring for minors and court wards.

The social welfare division of the county health department received notification of its certification by the state this week. In the past, such certification has been handled directly by the state.

Work of the certification includes fire inspection, health facilities and moral background investigation. The order becomes effective immediately and licenses for the homes, of which there are several hundred in the county, will be issued directly.

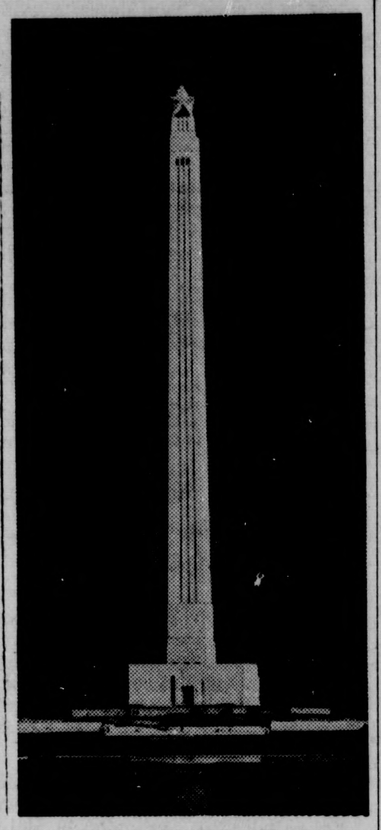
Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors Meet

Daly City Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors met Tuesday evening to plan a program of spring activities. President A. J. Gaggero announced the board's intention to sponsor a series of affairs to stimulate community interest and to draw local business men and civic leaders into a closer working unit to promote this community.

Resignation of Albert H. Boynton as secretary of the chamber of commerce was accepted. John Sireix was appointed to fill the post.

A chamber of commerce membership meeting will be held early in May.

Houston Memorial



Dedication ceremonies for the new San Jacinto museum and memorial shaft were being staged yesterday and today (Friday) at Houston, Texas. The museum stands at the base of the 567-foot tower—12 feet higher than the Washington monument—which is located on the old battlefield of San Jacinto. Today, April 21, is a Texas state holiday commemorating the battle, in 1836, which established Texas' independence from Mexico.

Replant Fire Swept Forest Area in State

Reforestation activities under the U. S. Forest Service in California this spring are adding more than a million pine seedlings to the state's natural resources wealth. Regional Forester S. B. Show said at San Francisco headquarters that 2500 acres of fire swept lands will have been planted with seedlings by the end of the month.

"If forest fire can be kept out of timbered areas we eventually will reclaim considerable areas for recreation, watershed value and wildlife refuges," Show stated. "In due time the Jeffrey, ponderosa and sugar pines that have been planted will mature and be harvested properly on a sustained yield basis.

Planting Programs

"Planting programs in the pine forests of the state are conducted during the spring and fall of each year when climatic conditions are most favorable for the survival of seedlings. Planting in the fall is limited chiefly to areas that are inaccessible for early treatment in the spring."

Durbin Nursery at Susanville supplies most of the planting stock for the Forest Service in California. The total nursery output for this year is reported to be about one million three hundred thousand seedlings.

The work of preparing and planting denuded areas in the national forests is being done by Civilian Conservation Corps enrollees under the supervision of forestry experts. Federal foresters say that reforestation work is one of the many jobs for which the CCC has gained an enviable reputation in the conservation movement.

Committee Approves Pillar Point Breakwater

Approval of the $69,000,000 Rivers and Harbors Authorization Bill by the House Rivers and Harbors committee last Friday practically assured an Army survey of Pillar Point at Half Moon Bay for erection there of a breakwater.

The Pillar Point item was included in the bill last Thursday. Approval of the committee is generally tantamount to passage by congress, for each matter is thoroughly gone over in committee and included in one gigantic bill.

If the bill is passed, the army will pay all expenses of a survey to find if erection of a breakwater would benefit coast shipping and defense. Should erection of a breakwater be recommended, the Federal government would finance it.

To Honor Muir At Ceremonies Today And Sat.

The one hundred and first anniversary of the birth of the great naturalist, John Muir, will be observed by a special radio broadcast today (Friday forenoon, April 21), and by a program tomorrow (Saturday) at the Golden Gate International Exposition on Treasure Island, the National Park service regional office of the Interior Department, assisting in the program, has announced.

Today's Feature

The feature of the observance today, the actual birthday of the renowned naturalist, will be a dramatized radio broadcast entitled, "John Muir's California Days." The original script for the historical program was prepared by J. L. Bossemeyer and Robert H. Wall of the National Park service staff. It has been adapted for production and will be presented by Phil Stearns and his Federal Theatre of the Air, a division of the San Francisco Federal Theatre project.

The broadcast will be a feature of "Agriculture Today," the program conducted by Jennings Pierce and presented daily, except Saturday and Sunday, from 10:15 a. m. to 10.30 a. m. over station KGO and the western blue network of the National Broadcasting company.

Saturday's Program

Saturday's program will open at 1:30 p. m. in the Alameda-Contra Costa counties building on Treasure Island with a reception followed by a program in the patio of the same building. A John Muir prologue will precede a theatre presentation of the "Snow Queen" in the California Recreation building.

Tree planting, honoring John Muir, will take place at 3:15 p. m. near the Fine Art Palace, followed by a John Muir program at 3:30 p. m. in the recreation building. These events are being arranged by the John Muir association.

As a part of the afternoon program, Park Naturalist Bert Harwell of Yosemite National Park will tell of the Yosemite scenes and birds loved by John Muir during the latter's long association with the scenic area.

Daly City To Have Clean-Up Week Soon

Daly City's annual clean-up week will be held early in May, it was announced today by Mayor Paul G. Selmi.

Within a week or ten days, instructions will be sent to homeowners and renters with a request to lend full cooperation to the program. Residents will be asked to clean their basements, back yards, alleys and on a certain day place debris along the curb.

City trucks will pick up the waste and transport it to the dumps. As in former years, this service will be entirely free.

To Eliminate Charge for Phones

The ten-cent monthly charge for the hand-set type of telephone will be eliminated on bills after July 1, throughout the territory served by Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Compnay, and Southern California Telephone Company, in California, President Ray C. Wakefield of the California Railroad Commission announced today

Removal of this charge will mean savings to telephone users in the state of $250,000 annually, Mr. Wakefield said. In addition the companies will be required to invest approximately $450,000 in additional equipment to meet the expected demand for the new hand-set telephones.

"This action culminates the commission's efforts to remove the added charge for the hand-set type of telephone, sometimes referred to as the 'French' telephone," said Mr. Wakefield. "Prior to 1936 the added charge for this type of telephone was 25 cents a month indefinitely. At that time it was reduced to 15 cents a month for 18 months and a year and a half ago it was further reduced to 10 cents for 12 months. We are glad to see the charge entirely removed and consider the action entirely fair to both the companies and the telephone users.

"Those persons who have recently had hand-set instruments installed will pay the 10-cent charge only to July 1, when it will be removed for everyone."

Elect New S. F. Peninsula Inc. Board

New board members for San Francisco Peninsula Inc. were elected Tuesday evening and an outline of 1939-40 activities were discussed at an open meeting held in Benjamin Franklin hotel, San Mateo. On April 28 the board will meet at Burlingame to elect officers.

San Francisco Peninsula Inc., a promotional and advertising organization sponsoring peninsula growth and development, includes a working area from (and including) Daly City to Palo Alto and from the coast communities to the bay shore.

Speakers Heard

At the session in Benjamin Franklin Hotel Tuesday night, attended by 38 persons, Supervisor Fred E. Beer spoke of the necessity of gaining a balanced industrial and residential development for the county; Winfield Scott discussed the transportation and water problems of the Peninsula; James Knollin of the Gerth-Knollin Advertising agency told of the advertising that had been done by SFPI and reported that a new moving picture being prepared for showing at the World's Fair in June and September, depicting Peninsula scenes, would be completed within 10 days, weather permitting.

Expansion Considered

Other brief talks were made by several attending, including David Lamoreaux and T. J. Hallinan.

The theme of the discussions was expansion of the activities of SFPI, which can study problems and promote the welfare of the Peninsula under its charter.

Reports of their activities to date were given by David D. Bohannon, chairman of the finance committee; Granville Browning of the publicity committee; Sam H. Winklebleck of the advertising committee.

All sections of the Peninsula were represented at the meeting. Daly City was represented at the meeting by Albert H. Boynton of the Daly City Record; Colma and Lawndale by Joe Sarto, Villa Sanitarium.

San Francisco Peninsula Inc., through its advertising agency, Gerth-Knollin, has recently issued a series of attractive folders describing the residential and business advantages of San Mateo and northern Santa Clara counties.

Princess' Birthday

Speed Work On New Courthouse

Gleaming white, San Mateo county's new courthouse annex emerged this week from behind a forest of scaffolding as workers rushed completion of the $240,000 structure, one of the most modern county office buildings of its size in the state.

Completion date is set for May 16. Scaffolding has already been removed from the front of the building on Broadway, and work on the interior is pushing forward at top speed.

Efficient Also

Pleasing to the eye is the broad, modern sweep of the three-story structure, with its ornamentations depicting the trek of civilization to California from the DeAnza expedition; its rugged square columns, handsome entrance and granite steps.

County officials who inspected the building this week said it will be the last word in efficiency, too, providing badly needed space to relieve the court house crowding problem and the nuisance of county offices scattered over Redwood City.

Sunnyvale to Get Research Station Soon

United States Senate Monday voted to appropriate $4,000,000 for the construction of an experimental aeronautics research station at Sunnyvale. Senator Hiram Johnson fought successfully to have the $4,000,000 appropriation considered by the Congress after it had been rejected by House and Senate subcommittees. The measure will now go back to the House, where favorable action seems assured.

Complete Plans For Firemen's Dance

Plans are nearing completion for Daly City's outstanding spring social event, the Firemen Widows and Orphans association annual dance to be held May 13 at Colombo hall.

According to latest reports, 1,500 tickets are already out for the affair.

A '49er theme has been selected to characterize this year's dance. Committeemen have been busily engaged in winding up all details.

Tickets may still be procured from any local fireman.

Peninsula Stores Show Increase in Sales

Retail sales of independent stores on the Peninsula were far higher last month than during March of 1938, figures released by the Bureau of Census show.

Redwood City led the Peninsula with a gain of 27.3 per cent over March, 1938. San Mateo retail merchants reported a gain of 17 per cent, Palo Alto 13.6 per cent and Burlingame 7.3 per cent.

To Decide Marchbank Handicap

Tanforan sweeps into the closing week of its successful Spring meeting with the classic of the season—the $5,000 added Marchbank Handicap—to be decided tomorrow (Saturday). Virtually all of the 14 stellar thoroughbreds nominated for the annual mile and an eighth fixture have trained exceptionally well and are expected to be in the starting lineup.

Congressman, owned by Fred Turner jr. of Texas, recently strode boldly into serious consideration when he worked a mile in 1:40 3-5. He was being eased up the last part of the flashy trial. The complete fractions follow: quarter, :23 3-5; half, 47 2-5; five-eighths in 1:00 3-5; three-quarters, 1:13; mile, 1:40 3-5.

Congressman raced creditably at Santa Anita against topflight company and was third to Whichcee and Today in his best performance. Cravat, Heelfly, Jacola and Sorteado were among the better ones who took his dust.

Trainer Monte Preston has freshened him up since Santa Anita, and judging by the trials he's turned in, Congressman is right at the top of his form. He looks better physically than he did at Santa Anita.

Only Two Doubtful

There are only two doubtful starters in the entire list of nominations. Bachiller, the Chilean importation, was punch-fired for splints on arrival here, but his owner, Clarence Shockley, has not yet given up hope of having him in the starting lineup. C. S. Howard's Chanceview probably is a "mud only" starter, but the horse has been working so well on the dry that he might go even if he doesn't get his particular type of racetrack.

C. S. Howard's Galapas is expected to rule as the favorite, but he isn't likely to be an overwhelming choice.

Weights for the Marchbank were announced Wednesday.

Treasure Island Rodeo Set For May

Tall, handsome Fritz Truan, one of the youngest top-bronc riders in the world, who is always in the money, has announced his intention of competing in the West's greatest indoor round-up—the World's Fair Rodeo, scheduled for May 12 to 21 in the coliseum on Treasure Isand.

The young cowhand will meet with other great performers of the rodeo world in 20 challenging contest performances scheduled for the ten days of the show. Included among the outstanding riders who will ride broncs, wrestle steers, rope calves, ride Brahma bulls and take part in bareback bronc competitions are Burel Mulkey, Salmon City, Idaho, present champion all-around cowboy of the world; Johnny Schneider, Livermore, California, another former world's champion all-around cowboy; Gene Ross, Sayre, Oklahoma, steer wrestler; Clyde Burke, Comanche, Oklahoma, calf roper; Doff Aber, Cooke City, Montana, top bronc rider; Pablo Olguin, Argentine gaucho, bareback bronc rider; John Bowman, Oakdale, formerly of Trent, Texas, former world's champion all-around cowboy, and many other top-ranking rodeo stars.

More than 150,000 persons are expected to attend the World's Fair Rodeo, the most exciting, thrilling event of its kind, with more champions and bigger purses offered than in any previous rodeo held in the West, E. J. Fjeldsted, livestock chief declared today.

Two Local Sea Scouts Get High Honor

The high rank of Quartermaster was achieved by two Sea Scouts of Ship 149 last Wednesday night. These two hard workers were Albert McCarthy and Bill Bellando.

The combination Eagle and Quartermaster Court of Honor was held in the Elks' hall, Post street. The candidates were called before the court, and each Scout Master and Skipper stated the qualifications of his boys. The awards were then pinned on the uniforms and proper recognition shown. Palms were also given. These are awards in the shape of a small leaf for earning additional merit badges after Eagle. Bill Bellando received a silver palm, the third and last one available.

A representative of the Knights of Dunamis invited the new Eagle Scouts and Quartermasters to join their ranks. The event ended with many congratulations from relatives and friends.

Plan Celebration To Honor De Valera

Plans for a four-day celebration to welcome and entertain Eamon De Valera, prime minister of the Irish Free State, when he visits San Francisco next month were being formulated yesterday by Mayor Rossi's citizens' committee and the city's Irish-American population.

George R. Reilly, past president of the United Irish Societies, member of the State Board of Equalization and general chairman of the citizens' committee, announced that "one of the greatest receptions in San Francisco's history will be given De Valera."

De Valera is to arrive in San Francisco May 29 from the Pacific Northwest and will remain until the evening of June 1 when he will depart for Los Angeles.

During his four-day visit, he will be feted at a series of social functions, entertained Memorial Day, May 30, at the Exposition on Treasure Island, be the guest of the Commonwealth Club at luncheon on May 31, and tour the peninsula and East Bay. It will be De Valera's third visit to San Francisco in 25 years.

Dodge Good-Will Truck in Peru

Throughout North and Latin America, public-spirited citizens inquire, "When will the Pan American highway be completed?" Highway grading is currently in progress throughout Central America, and South America, eager for American tourists, is proceeding with its end of the job. Photographed above is the Dodge Good-Will Truck beside "Pan American" signs in Peru, which is one of the more aggressive countries in respect to road building. To date, Peru has a highway from Salaverry, in the North, to Pisco, in the South.

Motorists Hail Defeat of Tax Increase

Defeat in the motor vehicle committee of the State Senate of a proposal to add another cent to the State gasoline tax was termed a distinct victory for organized motorists in a statement today by the California State Automobile association. Strong opposition to the tax raise was shown in protests to legislators from motorists throughout the State, the statement pointed out, and representatives of the automobile association and automobile club of Southern California spoke in opposition to the measure before the committee.

"Defeat of the gasoline tax increase was to be expected," said Joseph R. Knowland, president of the automobile association, "because it was plain that the great majority of motorists regarded the measure as an unwarranted effort to add $17,000,000 a year to their already heavy tax load."

Boy Scouts of Troops 148 and 149 held a combined weekend camporette last Saturday and Sunday, April 15 and 16, at San Mateo Memorial Park. It was held to prepare the boys for the coming camporee at Golden Gate Park tomorrow (Saturday) and Sunday.

The attendance on this trip totaled 53 boys and 5 leaders.

Saturday morning the Scouts were taken to Memorial Park where they set up camp and were later given many instructions in camping, cooking, and handicraft. That night a huge bonfire was built and the usual bonfire entertainment given.

Sunday morning a refreshing swim was enjoyed, followed by a few final instructions. That afternoon 9 automobile loads of parents visited their camp. They were very pleased as they inspected the grounds and witnessed a few demonstrations by the boys. Incidentally, the parents helped to transport some of the scouts back to Daly City.

The verdict of the scouters was gratifying: "All patrols present will participate at camporee."

To Introduce New Marigold at Flower Show

The most sensational flower of 1939—a big, red marigold, will be introduced to Western garden lovers at the California Spring Garden show in Oakland this month, by W. Atlee Burpee, jr., president of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society and internationally-known flower grower when he arrives here from the East in time to attend the Oakland show, April 27 to 30, inclusive.

The new creation, developed after several years of cross-breeding between the little French marigold, the blossoms of which are red, and the big yellow African marigold, was one of the outstanding exhibits in the recent Philadelphia Spring Flower Show, it is said.

Garden show visitors, expected to number 100,000 during the four days of the show, will see many new creations which are making history in the horticultural world, according to R. C. Bitterman, one of the show's board members. Priceless orchids, exotics from Tibetan hinterlands, Hawaii and other countries in the far corners of the world, will be shown. "Shangri-la" is the landscape theme of the show, which will be twice as large as any of the shows held during the past nine years, it was announced.

Monticello in Napa County will hold a rodeo April 30, with a horse show, barbecue, parade, and dancing as added attractions, reports the California State Automobile association.

Organize Jewish Nat'l. Welfare Fund Drive

Organization of campaign workers for the 1939 Appeal of the Jewish National Welfare Fund in San Mateo county and Palo Alto is underway today.

The fund-raising drive for world-wide Jewish relief opens officially next Monday, April 24.

Preliminary meetings of volunteer workers to cover San Mateo, Burlingame, Redwood City, Palo Alto and other communities in the San Mateo division are being called by Mrs. Albert Feldman, San Mateo, chairman of the division.

Mrs. Feldman has served as a fund leader in San Mateo county for many years, as her acceptance of the chairmanship again this year was welcomed by Rabbi Morris Goldstein, San Francisco, general campaign chairman.

"Mrs. Feldman's able services are more needed this year than ever before," the chairman said. "We are facing the most staggering world-wide relief problem in history."

Mrs. Feldman said the San Mateo county division would have no fixed quota this year.

Jesse W. Tapp Joins Bank of America

Jesse W. Tapp, prominently associated with the Department of Agriculture in Washington D. C. for many years, has joined the commodity loan division of Bank of America, according to announcement by L. M. Giannini, president of the bank.

Tapp brings to his new duties with Bank of America a broad familiarity with agricultural problems in California. As assistant AAA administrator he had charge of marketing agreement programs, many of which concerned California agriculture, particularly citrus fruits, walnuts and deciduous fruits. Through his association with the F. S. C. C. he was very active in the purchase of surplus fruits and vegetables in California.

"We feel," said president Giannini in making the announcement, "that we will be able more than ever to serve the needs of California farmers by adding to our staff of specialists one who has an intimate understanding of the crop problems of the country as a whole."

Tapp will make his headquarters in San Francisco.

Catholic Daughters Announce Day at Fair

Catholic Daughters of America announce that Catholic Daughters' day on Treasure Island is scheduled for May 25. Friends and members will spend the day and evening in the California building.

"Of Mice And Men" Will Open at Geary

Mail orders are now being taken for one of San Francisco's most important theatrical events of the year, when Wallace Ford and the Sam H. Harris office bring John Steinbeck's powerful drama, "Of Mice And Men," to the Geary theater, with Ford, Isabel Jewell, Lon Chaney jr., and members of the original New York cast, for a limited engagement beginning April 24.

Ford, long a popular film star, before his Broadway success in "Of Mice And Men," will play the same dynamic role in which he was acclaimed for more than a year by the New York critics and audiences.

Dramatic Hit

Hailed as the dramatic hit of the year and voted the best play of 1938 by the discriminating Critic's Circle, the production comes to Hollywood direct from its eastern triumphs.

Frank Coletti, who has been identified with the play since its start, is directing the production to ensure the same powerful handling that made it such a hit in New York, and John F. Hamilton, Thomas Findlay, Walter Baldwin and Leigh Whipper, will play the same roles in which they scored during the long New York run.

John Steinbeck, author of the vital and poignant drama of migratory workers in Central California, may come to San Francisco to see the show for the first time.

Wallace Ford is enthusiastic over the outlook for the play, particularly because he has been able to get together the same strong cast that made "Of Mice And Men," such a hit on Broadway and because he has been able to get Miss Isabel Jewell, well-known film actress, for the leading feminine role, and Lon Chaney jr, son of the famed late screen star, for the important role of "Lennie."

Tickets for all performances of this long-awaited play at the Geary theater, including Matinees Wednesday and Saturday, may be reserved by mail.

Latest estimates reveal the total cost of the New York World's Fair 1939 at more than $155,000,000. Of this outlay $50,000,000 is being borne by the World's Fair Corporation. The remainder is divided by United States Government, $3,500,000; New York State, $6,500,000; New York City, $20,000,000; states and territories, $5,000,000; foreign governments, $25,000,000; exhibitors, $35,000,000; concessionaires, $10,000,000.

Annual Exhibition Of S. F. Art Assn. Is Widely Praised

The fifty-ninth annual exhibition of the San Francisco Art association—chief art event for painters of the West Coast—is receiving wide praise for extraordinary originality. On view at the San Francisco Museum of Art through May 7, the Annual this year is made up of 129 oils and sculptures chosen from 624 works submitted to the Jury of Selection. The show is stimulating in its variety and in the sincerity by which artists seem to be pursuing personal methods rather than academic procedures.

Prizes totalling $1,200 were awarded to four painters and two sculptors. Anne Bremer Memorial Prize of $200 went to Theodore Polos of San Francisco for a moody self-portrait. Polos, born in Greece, until two years ago ran a restaurant in a San Francisco market. Mystical and intuitive in his approach to art, he has received several awards and much critical approval since taking up painting as a career.

Parilia Purchase Prize for Painting ($250) was awarded Otis Oldfield, 14 years an instructor in painting at the California School of Fine Arts. His prize painting "White Bowl," in its freedom and forcefulness has been hailed as a culmination of his sincere and studied craft.

Ardath Coldwell, young San Franciscan, received the Parilia Prize for Sculpture of $250 for her terra cotta "Two Sisters." Miss Coldwell is a pupil of Ralph Stackpole, and her work has a weighty serenity similar to that of her famous teacher.

First Artist Fund Prize of $125 was given to Lester Matthews for his wood sculpture, "Mother of the Sea." Second Artist Fund Prize of $75 went to Hamilton Wolf for a barber shop scene entitled "Next."

Nicola Ziroli of Chicago received the Medal of First Award for Painting; Carl George the Medal of First Award for Sculpture. Two Certificates of Honorable Mention were awarded: for painting, to Hariett Whedon; for sculpture, to Mathilde Schaefer.

The S.F.M.A. Purchase Prize of $300 was awarded to Tom E. Lewis for his oil, "Reclamation"—a vivid landscape of plowing. This painting, chosen by the Accessions Committee of the Museum, will remain in the Museum's permanent collection.

Tests Prove Studebaker Can Take It

The way automotive engineers seem to take delight in smashing and breaking the products of their own efforts is often amusing to the average motorist.

It looks like they were just satisfying that urge, carefully hidden in most of us, to break things just for the fun of breaking them. The engineer on the other hand can always justify his activities on the basis of scientific research, carefuuly planned experiments that lead the way to safer, stronger cars for the motoring public.

R ent tests given the new Studebaker Champion are a case in point.

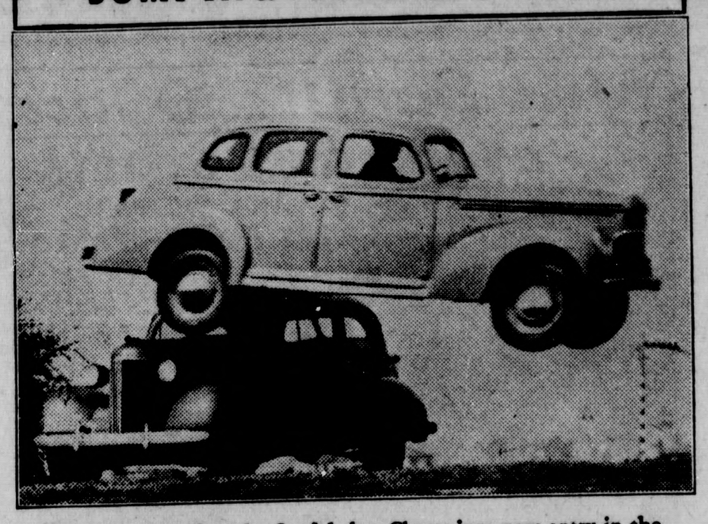
A new Champion four-door sedan was turned over to Cliff Bergere, famous racing driver and automobile stunt specialist. Bergere put the car through its paces. Power skids at high speed, jumping the hurdles six feet in the air, turning the car over by running up a slanting ramp at sixty miles an hour were just some of the stunts put on to see how the car would react.

Although the new Studebaker Champion took this beating like a champion should, these news-reel stunts don't hold a candle to the four patient years of beating, smashing and testing that the Champion took before the public ever dreamed of its existence, according to William J. Sweeney, local Studebaker distributor, 6806 Mission street.

"About three years ago, after plans for the new car were on paper, the Studebaker engineers built four hand made cars at a cost of about $60,000 each. These cars were equipped with old bodies, stripped of identification and driven across country under tougher driving conditions than any owner would encounter," Sweeney said.

"The performance of these cars was used as a basis for further tests and refinements. Since there is some difference between a hand made car and a car put through the regular line of production, further tests were made with production cars. Fifty cars were assembled on the regular production lines at South Bend. Two men were put in each Champion, instructed to give the car 'the works,' and not to return until they had 10,000 miles on each car. That gives a total of half a million miles as insurance to the motorist that the Studebaker Champion is built to take it."

JUMPING THE HURDLES



Just to prove that the Studebaker Champion, new entry in the low price field, can "take it" this four-door sedan driven by Cliff Bergere during recent tests made in the Southwest was deliberately abused by many stunts such as the one shown above. Here the car has just left a six-foot ramp at high speed and is headed downward for a terrific jolt, but the car took it like a champion and came back for more.

Report Shows Ford Sales In Lead During March In Automotive Capital

Motor car sales news of a highly inspirational type has just been received from Detroit, according to A. J. Bertini, manager of the National Auto company, local Ford agency, who announced that March registrations in the Detroit-Wayne county, automotive capital of the world, Ford sales occupied first position with a total of 1,880 deliveries.

"This mark of 1,880 represents an increase of 102.5 per cent over Ford sales of February, 1939, and is 743 units ahead of the next highest car," Bertini explained. "The figures are prepared by R. L. Polk company, the statistical agency, for Automotive News and are the latest available."

Mercury 8 Also Climbs

In the same area where the automobile industry dominates the economic scene and the "man in the street" knows more about motor car construction than in other areas, the sale of another Ford product, the new Mercury 8, also began climbing at a rapid rate. Mercury is now in seventh place in Detroit-Wayne county with a percentage increase of 73 per cent over February, 1939.

Further contributing to this excellent picture was the information received by Bertini from J. R. Davis, general sales manager of the Ford Motor Company. According to Mr. Dacis' statement retail sales of Ford V-8 cars and trucks and Mercury 8 cars in March throughout the nation totaled 75,345 units, which was 56 per cent increase over March a year ago.

The record-breaking total was made possible by a very large volume of sales in the last 10-day period of the month, according to the general sales manager, 36,874 units were sold and this total was more than 135 per cent better than the volume sold during the similar period of February and 83 per cent better than the 20,056 units sold in the previous 10-day period in March.

Local Demand

"The registrations of Ford-built cars are rising at a substantial rate as the spring season arrives," Bertini stated. "Locally Ford products are in greater demand too. Bay Area Ford dealers all report peak public interest, with more and more requests for demonstrations and appraisals. Ford dealers look forward to thriving months in April, May and June."

Invitation month is now in full swing, Bertini also reported. "The nation-wide invitation of Ford dealers to provide unobligated test rides to the public is being taken up wholeheartedly," he said. "Ford has everything to gain and nothing to lose by this frank invitation to buyers to find out for themselves. Ford's smooth performance, brought by V-type eight-cylinder engines, is the classical example of efficiency and brilliance in the automotive industry—and by riding and driving the cars people are finding this out as never before."

Blame Alcohol For Many Deaths

The report of the National Safety Council's Committee on Tests for Intoxication, for 1938, just received at the office of the San Mateo County Traffic Safety commission, contains some very interesting results of tests for alcohol of persons killed in traffic accidents.

It points out that intoxication is one of the most serious of present day traffic safety problems; —that intoxication not only is an important primary cause of traffic accidents, but that test methods, legislation, court procedure, and public opinion generally have not developed to an extent sufficient to permit the officials in all parts of the country to deal adequately with the problem.

However, we can submit to the motoring public the fact that under modern driving conditions, even a single drink is apt to affect a driver's judgment enough to cause an accident, and that accidents that can happen in the twinkling of an eye, may leave their marks on an entire lifetime.

Chrysler Dealer Recommends Spring Cleaning for Autos

"Motor cars, as well as homes, should be given a spring cleaning."

This was the suggestion made yesterday by A. L. Timossi, manager, Mission Auto company, Chrysler-Plymouth agency here, for the benefit of motorists who want to get a maximum of satisfaction from their automobiles when the warm weather sets in. He outlined a list of suggestions for an inexpensive but thorough motor car Spring conditioning.

"Whatever the make, model or age of your automobile," said Timossi, "it should be conditioned to meet the operating demands of warm weather. For one thing, winter lubricants should be drained from the engine, transmission and rear axle, substituting the proper grade for warm weather driving. It is also a good idea to tune up the engine in order to get maximum performance and economy by removing and cleaning the spark plug points, adjusting the ignition and distributor points, and checking the valves for proper clearance. The carburetor should also be adjusted for warm weather operation.

"People use their cars so much during the summer months," continued Timossi, "it is wise to take these simple precautions to insure trouble-free performance throughout the warm weather period. Another thing that is highly important is to check thoroughly the electrical system by inspecting the wiring to make sure that connections are tight and clean, condition of the battery terminals and battery strength, as well as head and tail lamps to see that they are properly focussed for safe night driving. Tires, also, should be gone over to make certain that they will stand the additional pressure caused by operating in higher temperatures."

Timossi said that during the present month his organization is celebrating Chrysler's Fifteenth Anniversary. Unusually liberal trade-in allowances are being made at the present time on the 135 H. P. Imperial.

Airship Industry Offers Jobs to Many

Effects of the rapid expansion of the aeroplane manufacturing industry have been felt in San Mateo county, according to the San Mateo Office of the California State Employment service, which has just referred a number of mechanics to jobs in Southern California.

The employment service has open orders for unlimited numbers of high grade mechanics, electrical assembly workers, sheet metal and precision machine operators, according to Wade Sargent, local manager. Some forty of these skilled workers in San Francisco and the Peninsula have already been referred and are preparing to move their families to Southern California, and more are being contacted as fast as persons meeting the high requirements can be located.

"At the present time only highly skilled technicians, with actual experience are being hired," Sargent said, "but both the aeroplane manufacturers and the employment service are aware that the supply of this type of worker is exceedingly limited, and it is only a question of time until no more such applicants will be available. Just what policy the manufacturers will follow in recruiting apprentices, or the substitution of work experience, is not definitely known, but plans are being discussed for the training of beginners and otherwise broadening the field to meet the requirements of this rapidly growing industry."

A total of 480 San Mateo county residents were placed in jobs during March by the local office of the California State Employment service, Sargent said. "The majority of these found work in the building trades, which is now enjoying the heaviest activity experienced in this section in several years. Another large group were placed with the large industries in the South San Francisco area, while a sizeable number found work in domestic service."

To Present Two Comic Operas Here

In the Federal Music theatre, 960 Bush street promptly at 8:30 p. m., Wednesday and Friday evenings, April 26-28, the Federal Music Project of the Works Progress administration will present a double bill of comic operas, "The Two Misers" by Andre Gretry and "The Conquest of Percy" by the San Francisco composer, Nino Comel.

Erich Weiler will conduct "The Two Misers." He has arranged the English libretto for this in such a way that the humor and delightful comedy will be entirely understood and enjoyed by everyone.

Nino Comel will conduct his own "Conquest of Percy." Fast dialogue mixed with charming musical numbers makes this a quick moving operetta. The libretto is written by Erich Weiler.

From the Eureka office of the National Automobile club comes the report that the Azaleas are beginning to bloom and should reach their zenith in about two weeks time.

Daly City Is "Automobile Row" For San Francisco Peninsula Motorists

Daly City, "Gateway to the Peninsula," is also the Peninsula's "automobile row." The six local agencies represent one of the leading industries in this area. Their weekly payrolls combined with their local taxes add up to a sizeable amount. Daly City motorists are wise when they purchase their new cars from the local dealers. Not only can a purchaser get just as good a deal here as any place else, but in purchasing a new car locally, he helps all local business prosper.

Christian Science Lesson-Sermon

Subject Will Be "Probation After Death"

"Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." These words from Psalms comprise the Golden Text to be used Sunday, April 23, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Probation after Death." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:" (1 Cor. 15: 1—4).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "The Master said plainly that physique was not Spirit, and after his resurrection he proved to the physical senses that his body was not changed until he himself ascended, — or, in other words, rose even higher in the understanding of Spirit, God" (p. 46).

Story Tells How Mark Twain Lost Fortune

Mark Twain lost a small fortune because he was too lazy to carry a bucket of water through the rain. Although the truth cannot be vouched for, the story was encountered by the WPA Federal Writers' Project while compiling "California: A Guide to the Golden State," which is being published this month.

In 1864 Mark Twain published a series of newspaper articles ferociously attacking police graft and official corruption in San Francisco. As an indirect result of this, San Francisco became too hot to hold him. The winter of 1865 found him up in the Mother Lode with a couple of miners, pocket-hunting for gold.

Twain's job was to carry buckets of water to wash down the pans of dirt. One rainy day he rebelled. He refused to bring the last bucket of water for the last pan of dirt. They left it sitting and went home. Twain never went back, shortly afterward returned to San Francisco.

According to the story, the last panful of dirt sat there until the rain washed it down and revealed a heap of shining gold nuggets. It was found by a party of strangers, who staked the claim, and soon took out between ten and twenty thousand dollars.

Nessier is survived by his two sons, Louis and Emil. Requiem mass was celebrated at St. Michael's church, Ocean View. Interment was in Holy Cross cemetery.

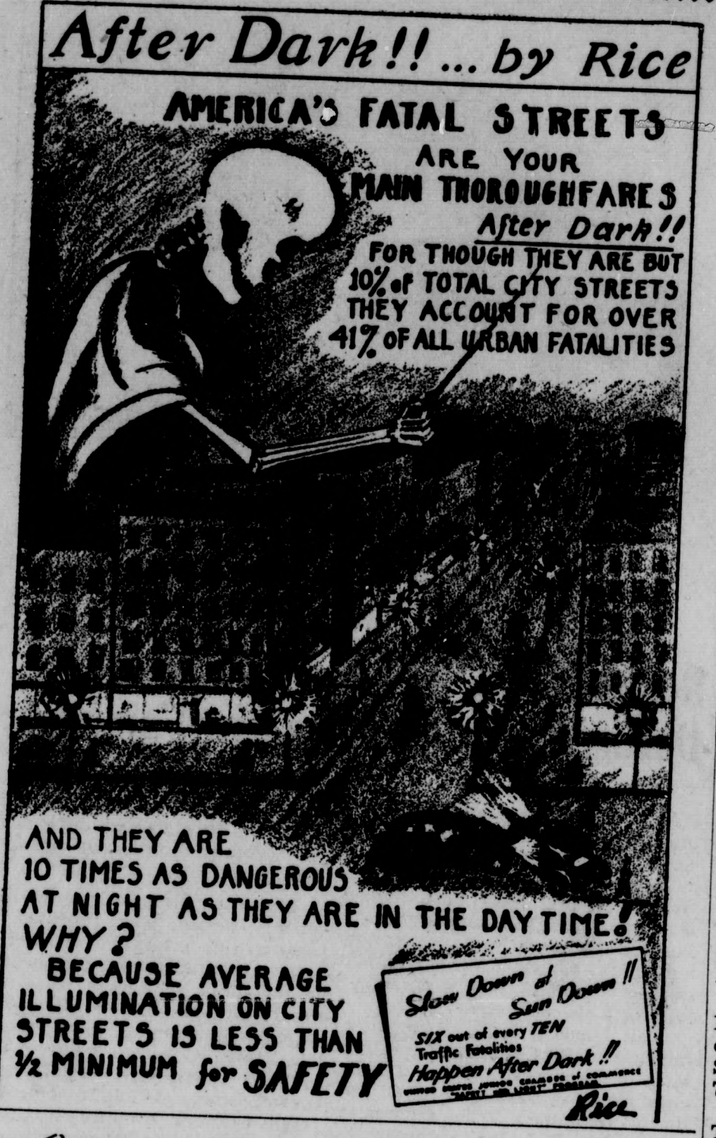
Girl Scout Council Food Sale Proves Success

Members of the Daly City girl scout council expressed their appreciation this week for the generous patronage given their food and candy sale on Saturday. According to the council, the affair was highly successful, with the mothers of the scouts in particular extending their support.

Proceeds from the sale will be used for the promotion of girl scout work in this community. It is hoped to establish a permanent meeting place soon.



FAVORITE FOODS IN NEW FORM

There's never a time when a woman can't use some clever new menu ideas for her family. When she must plan and serve nearly eleven hundred meals a year, it's an exceptional homemaker whose imagination doesn't lag a bit now and then!

If you're tired of preparing the same old foods, in the same old fashion, why not try some simple, new seasoning and serving tricks with the old familiar dishes?

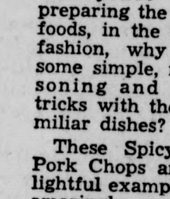
These Spicy Baked Pork Chops are a delightful example of the amazingly good meals you can produce with the help of a little housewifely imagination and a well-stocked condiment shelf.

SPICY BAKED PORK CHOPS

6 pork chops
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons fat
2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon black pepper
10 whole cloves
1 clove garlic
¼ cup vinegar
1 cup boiling water
2 tablespoons brown sugar

Roll chops in flour and saute slowly in fat until browned. Place in casserole. Sprinkle with salt and pepper; add cloves and garlic. Combine vinegar, water, and sugar and pour around chops. Cover. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 1½ to 2 hours. Remove garlic; thicken gravy if desired. Serves 6.

The vinegar in this recipe works flavor wonders on the pork chops, giving them a taste that's unusual and delicious. Vinegar adds subtle flavor to baked ham, as well, when it's used as part of the liquid for basting, or as an ingredient in the paste that covers the entire ham. It gives plain, everyday pot roast of beef an entirely new taste when it's used with spices to marinate the meat for a day or two before it's cooked.



Serve the Spicy Baked Pork Chops with scalloped potatoes, buttered waxed beans, and an old-fashioned Apple Pan Dowdy for the kind of meal that wins compliments for the cook!

Dried beef lends itself to use in so many colorful and tasty dishes that no food supply shelf is quite complete without a glass jar or two being included. As for recipe uses, well, Dried Beef and Noodles are about as popular a pair as can be found, but you don't know how good they are until you've tried them in this satisfying combination. The just-right salty tang of dried beef, the bland flavor of noodles, and the rich, nutty flavor of peanut butter unite to make Dixie Casserole of Frizzled Beef and Noodles a menu success. Served with a crisp green salad, crusty bread or rolls, a simple dessert, and beverage, it makes a completely satisfying meal.

DIXIE CASSEROLE OF FRIZZLED BEEF AND NOODLES

2 cups cooked noodles
3½-ounce jar dried beef, cut in pieces
¼ cup chopped onion
½ cup diced celery
2 tablespoons bacon fat or butter
½ cup peanut butter
1½ cups milk
⅛ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon celery salt
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 pimiento, chopped
½ cup buttered bread crumbs

Slowly saute dried beef, onions, and celery in fat or butter. Place peanut butter, milk, salt, pepper, celery salt, and Worcestershire sauce in bowl and beat with a rotary beater until smooth. Add noodles, dried beef mixture, and pimiento. Pour into greased baking dish; top with buttered crumbs and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 30 minutes. Serves 6.

Four-Car Collision Results in Death of Man

A four-car collision on Skyline boulevard south of the Pedro Valley road intersection Sunday morning resulted in the death of Captain Charles Albright, 61, a San Francisco sea captain, and the serious injury of Phil Tanner, 37, 610 Polk street, San Francisco.

Captain Albright was killed instantly as his automobile collided head-on with Tanner's northbound machine. Tanner, who is well known locally, received a badly slashed throat, and only the quick work of two San Francisco nurses, Yvonne McDonald and Beverly Bright of St. Joseph's hospital, saved his life. Drivers of the other two cars were cut and bruised.

Following the emergency treatment, Tanner was rushed to the Villa hospital in Daly City. Captain Albright was pronounced dead upon his arrival at the Junipero Serra hospital. His body was taken to W. C. Lasswell and company, and later removed to San Francisco.

Captain Albright was the nineteenth person to be killed in San Mateo county automobile accidents this year, compared with fifteen at this time a year ago. The fatal accident was the first in the county since March 26 when two people were killed.

Short Talks By Lloyd E. Ellis

The Apostle Paul, in writing to the Phillipians as recorded in the third chapter, declared that he forgot the things that had already passed and that he pressed on toward the goal that was before him.

He let none of the things of his past life worry him. He lost no time thinking of the trials that he had endured, nor of the afflictions that had befallen him. He wasted no effort in boasting of what he had done, but centered his attention upon that which was in the future and the good that he could still do, in following his Lord.

Many people live more in the past than in the future, forgetting that it is better to remember that the record of the past is closed, and that in order to live life to the fullest, one must think of the things of the present and of the duties which wait to be done.

Instead of wasting time gloating over past accomplishments, or moaning over mistakes and trials, one should clear his record, and press on by using his time and effort in performing what should be done now, looking to the peace, joy and happiness that may be had in the present, and in the future, as a result of having filled to the fullest, each moment of a righteous life.

Children Waste Time in Learning Necessary Three R's

Too many school children are wasting their time learning "readin', writin' and 'rithmatic" when they should be learning the activities of real life.

So thinks Dr. Junius L. Meriam, professor of education on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California.

"Our public schools," he points out, "which include high schools as well as lower schools, are committing an inexcusable waste of time and energy by devoting a major part of their curriculum to the 'tool subjects.' By 'tool subjects' I mean the 'three R's,' including spelling, language and grammar."

It is Dr. Meriam's theory that these "tool subjects" are acquired better and more easily if learned incidentally. He points out that by incidentally he does not mean casually or haphazardly, but with the idea that such instruction is subordinate to the main purpose of education.

The educator outlines a school program which he believes will give students a better opportunity to live while gaining the fundamental educational skills incidentally. He would stress four groups of activities:

Observation—becoming acquainted with the physical and social environment in which children live.

Handwork—constructing a variety of toys and useful articles.

Enjoyment of stories—including songs and pictures.

Playing games for wholesome fun.

So intrigued was Miss Dorothy McDonald of Berkeley that she borrowed a miner's hat and overalls, and rode through a tunnel in an ore car.

At left is the 155-foot tower of the Belgium Pavilion which holds a carillon of thirty-six bells. The striking tower at the right, rising above Florida's beautiful pavilion, contains the world's largest carillon. It has 75 tubular bells, weighs 25 tons and is operated electrically and will be played by outstanding visiting musicians. The Netherlands tower, centre, is 110 feet high and its belfry has 35 chimes which will sound the hour.

"Helen and Bob want us to go with them to the Fair!"

A special feature of the exhibit is "Pedro, the Voder," a machine that talks. This new electrical invention creates speech when an operator plays its keys...Visitors may also test their hearing and hear how their own telephone voices sound...You are cordially invited to the Bell System exhibit at the Golden Gate Exposition.

Cavalcade of The Golden West Gains Increased Popularity at Fair

Cavalcade of the Golden West! The children and educators on Exposition school tours, visitors young and old from all parts of the world to the Golden Gate International Exposition, and editors and critics are lauding Cavalcade of the Golden West as the "Greatest Show on Earth."

And guests of Treasure Island are proving it as the days go by. From a mere four per cent of the Exposition attendance to the present 21½ per cent of the Exposition front gates is the record of increasing popularity visitors are setting at the World's fair for the biggest show of 1939.

Produced by Adolph Vollman, this great historical drama of the winning of the west is attracting praise from the thousands who are eagerly "telling the world" about Cavalcade.

Dr. Sproul Recommends

"Everyone should see it," said Dr. Robert Gordon Sproul, president of the University of California. "I'll personally invite 50,000 people."

"It is the best thing I've seen in years," said Jean Hersholt, famous movie star.

From the day Vasco Nunez de Balboa stood on the peaks of Darien on the Isthmus of Panama and looked upon the blue Pacific Ocean in 1513 A. D. down through the "gay nineties," Cavalcade tells the thrilling story of the western world in a brilliant sequence of 24 scenes.

Four Hundred Years

Four hundred years of the glorious yesterdays of the west are portrayed on the world's largest stage. In this extraordinary setting Balboa, Cabrillo, Cortez, Portola, Sir Francis Drake, Father Junipero Serra, President Thomas Jefferson, Kit Carson, Vallejo, Sutter, Marshall and many others "live" again in the historically true events which made them famous.

Many novel forms of stage technique make possible the telling of these four hundred years. Nearly 2,000 characters are played on Cavalcade's stage during every performance. More than 200 head of livestock appear in the scenes.

Benedicts Win Horseshoe Match

The long-heralded horseshoe match between the Benedicts and Bachelors on the courts of the Daly City recreation department of the WPA was held last Sunday and resulted in a victory for the Benedicts by the score of 2 to 1. All games were very close, the deciding game being won by one point, but the married men came through at the finish to show their superiority. G. Dillon and N. Moorehouse were the best of the single men, but the playing of the married men was so equal it would be difficult to pick the best one, according to spectators.

The team line-ups were as follows: Benedicts—G. Seybold, H. Simmons, D. Foss, N. Letture, R. Thom, G. Goble, H. Lamont, M. McCune, E. McDermott and G. McLeod; Bachelors—J. Repose, F. Hurlbert, G. Dillon, N. Moorehouse, C. Wise, R. Selby, G. Byrnes, B. Moorehouse, J. Kentri, M. Kingon, F. Hicks and R. Smith.

Improve Courts

The rock dust for the horseshoe courts, which are under the direct supervision of George McLeod, has been dumped on the grounds and by tomorrow will be rolled and watered with the result that Daly City will have the best courts in the counties of San Mateo and San Francisco.

It is expected that by the end of the week the grounds will be in perfect order and the fence on the easterly side of the courts will have been whitewashed. All that then remains is to wait for the hedge on the westerly side of the courts to grow.

The play on these courts is increasing by leaps and bounds. Hardly a day passes but players from San Francisco and Peninsula towns try their skill at barnyard golf and almost without exception they tell McLeod, "You surely have something here."

"Two A Day" Opens at Alcazar Theatre on May 18

Tears and laughter will come to San Francisco early in May when "Two A Day," the colorful cavalcade of vaudeville moves up from Hollywood to the Alcazar theatre.

Oldsters will relive their youth and the days when vaudeville was the most popular form of American entertainment. Youngsters, who have been brought up on motion pictures will, for the first time in their lives see big-time vaudeville.

For, in the cast of this show which has been playing for six months in the heart of Hollywood, are the figures of men and women prominent nationally one and two decades ago—men and women who gave vaudeville its color and its excitement.

Among the great stars, whose abilities are undimmed by the years, are Joe Brooks, Willa Holt Wakefield, Anna Chandler, Ethel Davis, Truly Shattuck, Rice and Cady and Moran and Van.

"Two A Day" opens May 18 at the Alcazar theatre. It was announced earlier for May 8, but "Run Little Chillun," the All-Negro musical drama now in its fifteenth week, is drawing such heavy patronage that it was decided to keep it at the Alcazar for another week.

Almost 300,000 Californians have seen "Run Little Chillun." When "Two A Day" opens, "Run Little Chillun" will move to the Federal theatre on Treasure Island.

"Free passes" will cause no worries to officials of the New York World's Fair 1939. The "complimentary ticket" problem, which has long plagued showmen the world over, has been solved. There simply will not be any free passes. Public officials, officers of the Fair and friends alike, will pay their admissions in the same manner as the general public. Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia owns Season Ticket No. 1.

Dorothy Lamour Stars In D. C. Theatre Feature

The sarong—Dorothy Lamour's famous South Seas costume—follows the star with the persistence of Mary's little lamb! Even in her latest picture, "St. Louis Blues," opening Sunday, April 23, at the Daly City theatre, her big dramatic role shows the glamorous Dorothy clad in the famous sarong—though only for a brief scene.

Paramount's Great Glamour Girl Proves Her Ability to "Take Beating"

If you can take a terrific beating and come through unscathed, Hollywood will be ready to admit that your acting apprenticeship is over!

This was the conclusion reached by Paramount's great glamour girl, Dorothy Lamour, at the completion of her new role in "St. Louis Blues," opening Sunday at the Daly City theatre. In this story of life aboard a Mississippi showboat, Miss Lamour is set shoveling dirt along the levees, swabbing decks and gets mauled around in general by her leading man, Lloyd Nolan.

"As soon as I became a star in Hollywood I began roughing it," said Miss Lamour. "In my previous picture, 'Spawn of the North,' which marked my first big dramatic role, I went in for underwater wrestling with George Raft, got pushed around by Akim Tamiroff and entered into sundry other rough stuff. Before that, in 'Hurricane,' I was blown about by wind machines for days on end."

And there's no let up! Miss Lamour's interview was interrupted by Director Raoul Walsh, who ordered her to get back to her scrubbing!

"St. Louis Blues" gives Miss Lamour another big opportunity to show her talent for dramatic acting, as she did in "Spawn of the North." She plays a Broadway celebrity, who fed up with glamour, applause and publicity, runs away from it all and finds happiness and romance aboard a down-at-the-heels Mississippi showboat.

Companion picture will be Jackie Cooper and "Little Tough Guys" in "Newsboys Home." Wendy Barrie is also featured.

A colorful display of the ever popular "redbud" is now to be found in the Mother Lode district, according to the Stockton office of the National Automobile club. The redbud, combined with innumerable other species of wild flowers, provides a spectacular background for the many scenic and interesting trips through the Mother Lode district at this time of year.

John McLaren Pleads Butano Cause

John McLaren, father of San Francisco parks and the man who built San Francisco's golf course at Sharp Park, in this county, went to Redwood City Tuesday to argue for the Butano purchase. Accompanied by two of his great grand-children, the 94-year-old patriarch of playgrounds, had not been advised that the public hearing had been postponed.

But in caucus with the board of supervisors, McLaren expressed his opinion in no uncertain terms, and as a mark of respect to his interests and courtesies, his remarks were incorporated in the minutes of the board's official meeting, which he did not attend.

Carl Benz of Mannheim, Germany, built the first road vehicle to be propelled by an internal combustion hydro-carbon engine in 1885, according to the California State Automobile association. The first Benz car was a tricycle, with a single-cylinder, four-cycle, water-cooled motor using electric ignition and a mechanical carburetor. It developed a speed of almost ten miles per hour.

The surviving relatives are his widow, Esther Tomei; three sons, Frank, Bennie, and Boby Tomei; two daughters, Mrs. Attalie Lena and Mrs. Bricna Romani; and a sister, Mrs. Nellie Isero.

Mrs. Thompson Entertains at Luncheon

Mrs. Patricia Thompson, Peoria street, entertained at luncheon last Friday at her home. Guests included her mother, Mrs. Margaret Morris; her aunt, Mrs. Deliah Chamberlain, San Francisco, and Mrs. Sarah Nordgren.

Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Chamberlain left Saturday for Missouri, where they plan to stay until October, visiting relatives they have not seen for fourteen years.

Troop No. 141 Plan for Summer Camp

Boy Scout Troop No. 141 held their regular meeting Thursday night at the Grace Nazarene church. In charge of the game period was Paul Lewis, newly-commissioned assistant scoutmaster, who introduced several new games.

A plan of buying camp stamps in order to finance a summer camp met with the approval of the troop. As his means permit, each boy will purchase stamps from scout leaders and paste them into a folder. A filled folder will entitle the owner to attend camp.

The Pioneer patrol cleaned up the church grounds last week, and the Waterdog patrol mowed the lawn. Both groups were publicly thanked by the minister.

Cub Pack No. 141 met April 14, with all six dens well represented. Cub Frank Devlin, Den No. 1, was presented with the Silver Arrow Point of his Bear rank. Former Den Six Mascot, Jimmy Watso, who turned nine in March, was inducted into the pack as a full-fledged member.

Olson Mass Meeting Will Be Held Tonight

While Governor Olson will not be present in person, on account of the bereavement in his family, he will be represented by many of the leaders of his administration including Lieutenant-Governor Ellis E. Patterson, State Senator John F. Shelley and others. Among others who will address the meeting will be Sheridan Downey, jr., Roy Owens, Rabbi J. J. Weinstein, Fitz-Gerald Ames (president of the San Francisco Federation of Regular Democratic Clubs) and Phil F. Garvey, vice-president of the federation who will act as chairman.

DC Theatre Shows New March of Time

"Background For War," the latest single-feature issue of The March of Time, which tells the first complete pictorial story of the French-Italian crisis over Tunisia, will be shown at the Daly City theatre, starting Sunday, April 23.

The film, which was taken by March of Time's staff cameramen in Tunisia during the past three months, dramatically traces the development of events in Europe as the Mediterranean area comes into the headlines.

Why Tunisia is strategically and economically important to Benito Mussolini's plans for his new Greater Roman Empire, and how his plans have been carried out is shown for the first time on the screen in this exclusive film material.

But to make this report complete March of Time also shows, in many scenes never before photographed, what the French have been doing while Mussolini's sword was rattling. Audiences will see how the aroused and determined French, backed by the loyalty of the Moslems in Tunisia, are preparing to defend their soil, even with the force of arms if necessary.

Disclose Theft Of 100 Trees on Bayshore

More than 100 trees recently planted by the county to beautify Bayshore highway have been stolen, it was disclosed late last week by Ronald Campbell, planning adviser. All of the trees, he said, have been replaced and the State Highway Patrol is keeping close watch.

Campbell said the flower beds bordering the highways were to be increased in size. Three thousand more plants have been purchased and will be planted by alien relief clients under supervision of the county.

Mrs. C. Downall, Alexander avenue, returned to her home from a local hospital on Sunday evening. She is now convalescing.
